

die, over true, is unmistakably pointing to the destination of Jefferson Davis.

The Infernal Regions.

[Our artist being rather imaginative, next gives a scene somewhat in the prospective. The horse escapes! and through fright becomes transformed into a better and, as our artist remarks,

Quieter looking animal.]

The exciting events of the last scene are thus described: Jeff, keeping his eye on the needle of the compass, urges the horse onward, but it naturally having better sense and instinct than Jeff, smells the sulphuric fumes, and as it reaches the verge, gives one mighty leap and clears itself of oridle, saddle, Jeff, and all, and comes out unscathed, with the exception of burning the hair from its left side and neck, as shown in the engraving.

Jeff! we must now leave you! and with our leave-taking we utter the pathetic farewell of Artemus Ward: "Farewell my gay Saler boy! Good bye, my bold buccanner! Pirut of the deep blue sea, adoo! adoo!"

A conscience free from guilt is a crown of rejoicing to the head, and a source of enjoyment to the heart.

Probably Humphrey Marshall, after living as long as he can, will die of his own free will and a cord.

The naval force of the United States now consist of 427 vessels with an armament of 3,268 guns.

Gen. Grant has ordered a brigade of negroes at Grand Junction, Mississippi to pick cotton. A regiment of infantry is assigned to guard them.

Counterfeit Treasury notes, $50's and $100's raised from 1's and 2's have made their appearance in New York. Keep a sharp look-out for them.

The cost of the Overland Mail, according to the Postmaster General's report, is $1,000,000 per annum.

$100,000,000 is the estimated gold production of the United States for the past year.

1863. PROSPECTUS OF THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

There is a great deal of talk among our contemporaries about the "great rise in the price of paper," and the necessity of a corresponding rise in the price of newspapers. We do not agree with our friends as to the last proposition. It is true that paper has gone up frightfully—fifty percent at least, and is "will on its way up." But what of that? Publishers have for years had a good time with low-priced paper, and made large profits; and now that times have changed they should pay the enhanced price for paper without whining and attempting to get it back off of their subscribers. The increase of paper will make a difference of tens of thousands of dollars to us yearly; but we shall not increase the price of the Ledger. That will remain as it is. We can afford it. The retail price will continue to be 4 cents; and our club terms as they always have been. Our subscribers have stuck to us when paper was cheap; and we do not intend to increase our rates to them now when it is dear. "It is a poor rule that won't work both ways."

All our old contributors have been re-engaged for the coming year; our corps will be so large, and will embrace such a variety of eminent talent, that every department of literature will receive the particular attention of some one competent to do it ample and special justice. In fact, our contributors will send us from "week to week" much more matter than we can possibly use, so that we shall always have a fresh and superabundant supply from which to select the very best.

The following are the names of some of our leading contributors for the new year—1863. What other paper ever presented such an array of distinguished and popular names: Hon. Edward Everett, Rev. John S. C. Abbott, William Allen Bryant, John G. Saxe, Geo. P. Morris, N. P. Willis, Geo. B. Frisvold, Byronas Cobb, Jr., Emerson Bennett, Tilton Conant, F. A. Dorrance, William Brewster, F. S. Arthur, F. Hamilton Myers, Col. Walter B. Dunlap, Mrs. Spurgeon, Mrs. Southworth, Fanny Fern, Annie Corb Bitchie, Alice Cary, Mary Forest, Miss A. E. Dapay, Mary Stanley Gilman, Caroline Chandler, Ethel Lyons, Mrs. Estelle Anna Lewis, Amy Randolph, and many elegant professors in college, statesmen and other eminent writers residing in different parts of the United States.

OUR TERMS:

Single copies, 4 cents; two copies $5; four copies $10; eight copies $12. Postmasters and others who get up clubs can afterwards add single copies at $1.50. Terms for advertising in columns are on page 10. The lowest rates for a long period than one year. The name of all agents paying for the paper.

Agents employ news traveling agents. Address all communications to ROBERT BOWEN, Publisher, No. 20 Park Row New York.

CENTRALIA NURSERY

We have at Centralia, Nemaha county, Kansas, about 40,000 apple trees, all grafted, and of all varieties that have been raised in the west. They have been grown here on the open prairie. If any trees will do well in Kansas these must. Also a quantity of cherries and different varieties of Strawberries, Lawton Blackberries, &c. &c. We shall be ready during the Fall of 1862 and Spring of 1863 to supply the people of Northwestern Kansas with trees grown here, on favorable terms. Apple trees, 3 years' growth from graft 4 to 5 feet high and stocky, 20 cents, and other trees in proportion. We will take in exchange for anything in our Nursery, all kinds of Farm produce and stock. Give us a call as you are going to the river, and examine for yourselves—bring along a load of corn, wheat, pork or anything you have to spare, and take home trees when the proper time for transplanting comes. Some prefer transplanting in the Fall, others in the Spring—suit yourselves. June, 1862. BAKER & SQUIRE.
